TRIP DETAILS:

This trip is open to PCCT members and other interested adults at least 19 years of age hoping to provide tangible assistance to people affected by recent natural disasters.

WORK PROJECTS: home repair projects such as: restoring walls, ceilings, and floors to good condition; installing doors, baseboards, window trim, light fixtures, countertops, and major household appliances. Tools are provided for all projects; supervisors will be on-site to provide training and guidance. No special skills are required, simply a willingness to serve.

LODGING (Tues – Sat) at a local church in Houston (referred to as “Base Camp”), approx. 40 min from either HOU or IAH airports. Sleeping quarters are likely to be co-ed, up to 20 people per room (air mattresses and mattresses on bunk beds). Private sleeping rooms not available. Kitchen, separate bathrooms and hot showers are on-site. Meals are provided on work days.

COST: Participants are responsible for all travel costs including airfare plus one night’s lodging and meals (if arriving Monday); shared costs of ground transportation; and suggested donation of $25 per day to All Hearts and Hands for lodging and food.

TRAVEL: Please consider booking on these flights so we can arrange for shared ground transportation.
